

Sarcasm

SOMEbody once defined sarcasm as a verbal high explosive. This definition is not bad if expanded to say that sarcasm is a verbal high explosive that usually does more damage to the person using it than to the person against whom it is used.

A good many people seem unaware of this self-damaging quality of sarcasm. They use it freely, in social intercourse and still more in their household and business dealings.—H. Addington Bruce.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

Recently at Remond, Ind., formal announcement was made of the engagement of Miss Edith Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Marion I. Adams, to Mr. Harry Hall of this city. The wedding will occur at the home of the bride's parents on Wednesday, September 6, with only the immediate members of the family in attendance.

Miss Adams is a sister of Mrs. Z. M. Goff of this city and was formerly a teacher in the schools here. After a short wedding trip, the young couple will be at home to their friends in the California Court, Fifth and Boston avenues.

Mrs. Frank Johnson will be hostess of the J. R. C. club on Friday afternoon at her home in Kendall.

Mrs. A. M. McSpadden will be hostess to the members of Matrons Philanthropy class of the Baptist church on Tuesday afternoon at her home, 904 North Denver.

OUTINGS.

Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Syfert and Mrs. C. C. Boone will act as chaperons when the members of the Netona club entertain with a picnic at Okfuskee lake Monday evening. Swimming and boating, followed by a picnic supper.

CLUBS

The September meeting of the Clement A. Evans chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy was held Friday afternoon with Mrs. J. G. Reaser as hostess. Visitors of the afternoon were Mrs. Anna G. Brown, Mrs. W. T. Davidson and Miss Maud Carson.

The regular business hour was held, and it was voted that Mesdames S. W. Parry and Neal C. Tipton be delegates, and Mrs. W. R. Hoach and Mrs. E. M. Linn as alternates, would represent this chapter at the general D. C. convention to be held in Dallas, Texas, on November 2.

The social hour included an impromptu program of "Historical Songs of Omission and Commission" by Mrs. James Sykes; "The Garden of My Heart" sung by Mrs. Hoach; "The Spanish Monarch" by Miss Louise Cohen; "The Bridge" song by Mrs. Laura Russ. Refreshments were served.

Mrs. J. P. Hendricks, assisted by Mrs. G. G. Miller and Miss Irene Rupp, was hostess to the members of the H Sharp club Friday afternoon. Refreshments were served with an impromptu program followed by the serving of refreshments.

WEDDINGS.

Formal announcement has been made in Denver, Col., of the engagement of Miss Alice Josephine Spencer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Spencer, to Mr. Hal R. Adams. The ceremony will be on Monday evening, September 4, with only the immediate members of the families in attendance. Mr. Adams, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Adams of 1847 South Main, is an attorney in the office of Rice & Lyons, and is a graduate of Kansas university. After the wedding Mr. and Mrs. Adams will leave for Chicago to spend a few days before returning to Tulsa, where they will reside.

An announcement of much interest to the younger social set here is the marriage of Miss Ada Hannafin to Mr. Roy Herd, both of Broken Arrow. The bride is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. P. Hannafin and is a graduate of the 1913 class of Loretto academy of Kansas City. The ceremony was performed Thursday, August 23, at the rectory with the Rev. John J. Helring officiating. Mr. Herd is a son of Mr. and Mrs. J. M. Herd and is a successful merchant of Broken Arrow.

Miss Hannafin was a recent guest in the Eagan home at 904 South Guthrie, during which time she made many friends. Mr. and Mrs. Herd, after a month's wedding trip in the west, will be at home in Broken Arrow.

MUSICAL.

Among the most interesting announcements for the events of December is a song recital which will be given under the auspices of Miss Isabel Pando. The soloist, Lucy Gates, is a distinguished American coloratura soprano and was formerly with the Royal Opera of Berlin and Cosel. Miss Pando, daughter of Kansas City and Miss Lynette Kimmons will assist with piano numbers. Miss Kimmons will also be the accompanist.
